Principal's Report:

- EQAO student achievements have been posted. Teachers were pleased with the results.
- There is a possibility for SFA to run an academic after-school program for grades 7 and 8 however it is still being looked at.
- Nov. 19 was elective day with the purpose of promoting diversity
- Project Hope for Syrian immigrants: Social Justice Club donated money raised at church fellowship and school supplemented (from Milk & Pizza) to make a donation of $500
- The response for Christmas Cheer and Out of Cold initiatives has been overwhelming. The initiative will run till December 14th.

Community & Parish Report:

- Children's Christmas party at church is the 3rd week of Advent from 2 pm - 6 pm and will end with mass. $5.00 per child and the sign up is after mass on the weekends.
- First Communion: Shelley is the First Communion contact and the First Communion number is now at 40 children and may go up. Elizabeth will update numbers a.s.a.p. and we need to stress/outreach to the grade two parents that if they want their child or children to participate they need to contact the church very soon. Mrs. Robert to send out "Remind Me "alert.
- RCIC: Right of Catholic Initiation for Children begins the first two week of January for children from grade 2 to 5 if they have not been baptized. For the second grade they can be baptized and do the communion together. Tentative date for the RCIC first meeting is December 15th.
- Posted OAPCE (Ontario Association of Parents in Catholic Education) newsletter under SCC.
- CPIC has 5 Schools per parish, 2 positions per school.

Next Meeting January 6, 2016 at 6:30 pm
